

2. From the graphic viewpoint:

- The size of a signed number codes how far from 0 the signed number is on a quantitative ruler.

EXAMPLE 3. The signed numbers -5 and $+5$ have the same size, namely 5, so they are equally far from 0: