In 1758, the British mathematician Francis Maseres professed that negative numbers:
“... darken the very whole doctrines of the equations and make dark of the things which are in their nature excessively obvious and simple.”

Deyan Ginev
e-mail to the W3C MathML Working Group, 26 May 2022